CONNECTIONS

What is CONNECTIONS?
Connections Degree Completion Program is a Multicultural program that allows students to complete an Associate Degree for transfer or an Associate Degree in a viable career in 3 years or less.

Why choose CONNECTIONS?
- Helps you become a successful student who graduates in 3 years or less.
- Provides you with a Counselor who will help you develop an educational plan and work closely with you every step of the way.
- Provides tutoring and support in the MI CASA multicultural center.
- Provides career exploration so that you can decide on a major or a high-wage career.

Who is eligible for CONNECTIONS?
The program is designed for Latino/Latina and low-income students who are either coming to college for the first time or who are already enrolled at SRJC and need a pathway to successful degree completion. After taking the ASSESSMENT, students are eligible if they place in:

- Current/Returning SRJC students
- First time/High School students
- Students must be FULL TIME (12 units)
- Hispanic or Low-income students
- ENGL 307 & ENGL 100 Level **

 Students must be at ENGL 100 level by the start of FALL
